

Solis 01.01
Ø52cm x W: 30cm								Design: Karol Droszcz

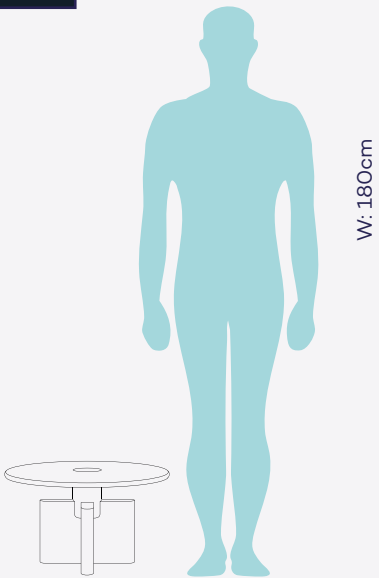

Solis 01.01 is a modern coffee table that combines minimalism with bold design. Its round tabletop paired with an oval structural element creates a unique geometry, adding elegance and lightness to any interior.

Thanks to its compact size, it can serve as a side table in the living room, bedroom, or any other space where style and functionality matter. A wide range of color options allows it to match any decor, and the ability to combine it with other models from the Solis collection makes it easy to create a unique composition.

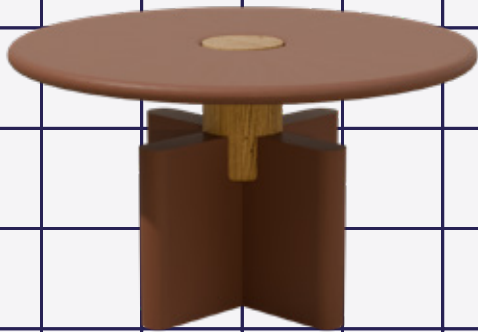

It's a fusion of aesthetics and practical function that makes Solis 01.01 a distinctive accent in any space.
