

Solis 02.01
L: 120cm W: 72cm, H: 35cm						Design: Karol Droszcz

Solis 02.01 is an elegant and functional wooden table that fits perfectly into any interior. Its modern geometry and ergonomic form give it a timeless character, making it an ideal choice for lovers of good design. The table is made entirely of high-quality wood — with a choice of walnut or oak.

This table works beautifully as a practical side table by the sofa, a handy spot for your favorite books, or a functional surface for everyday gatherings. Crafted from premium natural materials — walnut or oak — it combines durability with a refined, sophisticated finish.

Its distinctive geometric form draws attention, while the precision of craftsmanship highlights its artisanal quality. Thanks to its versatility, it stands out as a single accent piece, but when paired with other models from the collection, it creates a harmonious and stylish interior arrangement, bringing timeless elegance to the space.
